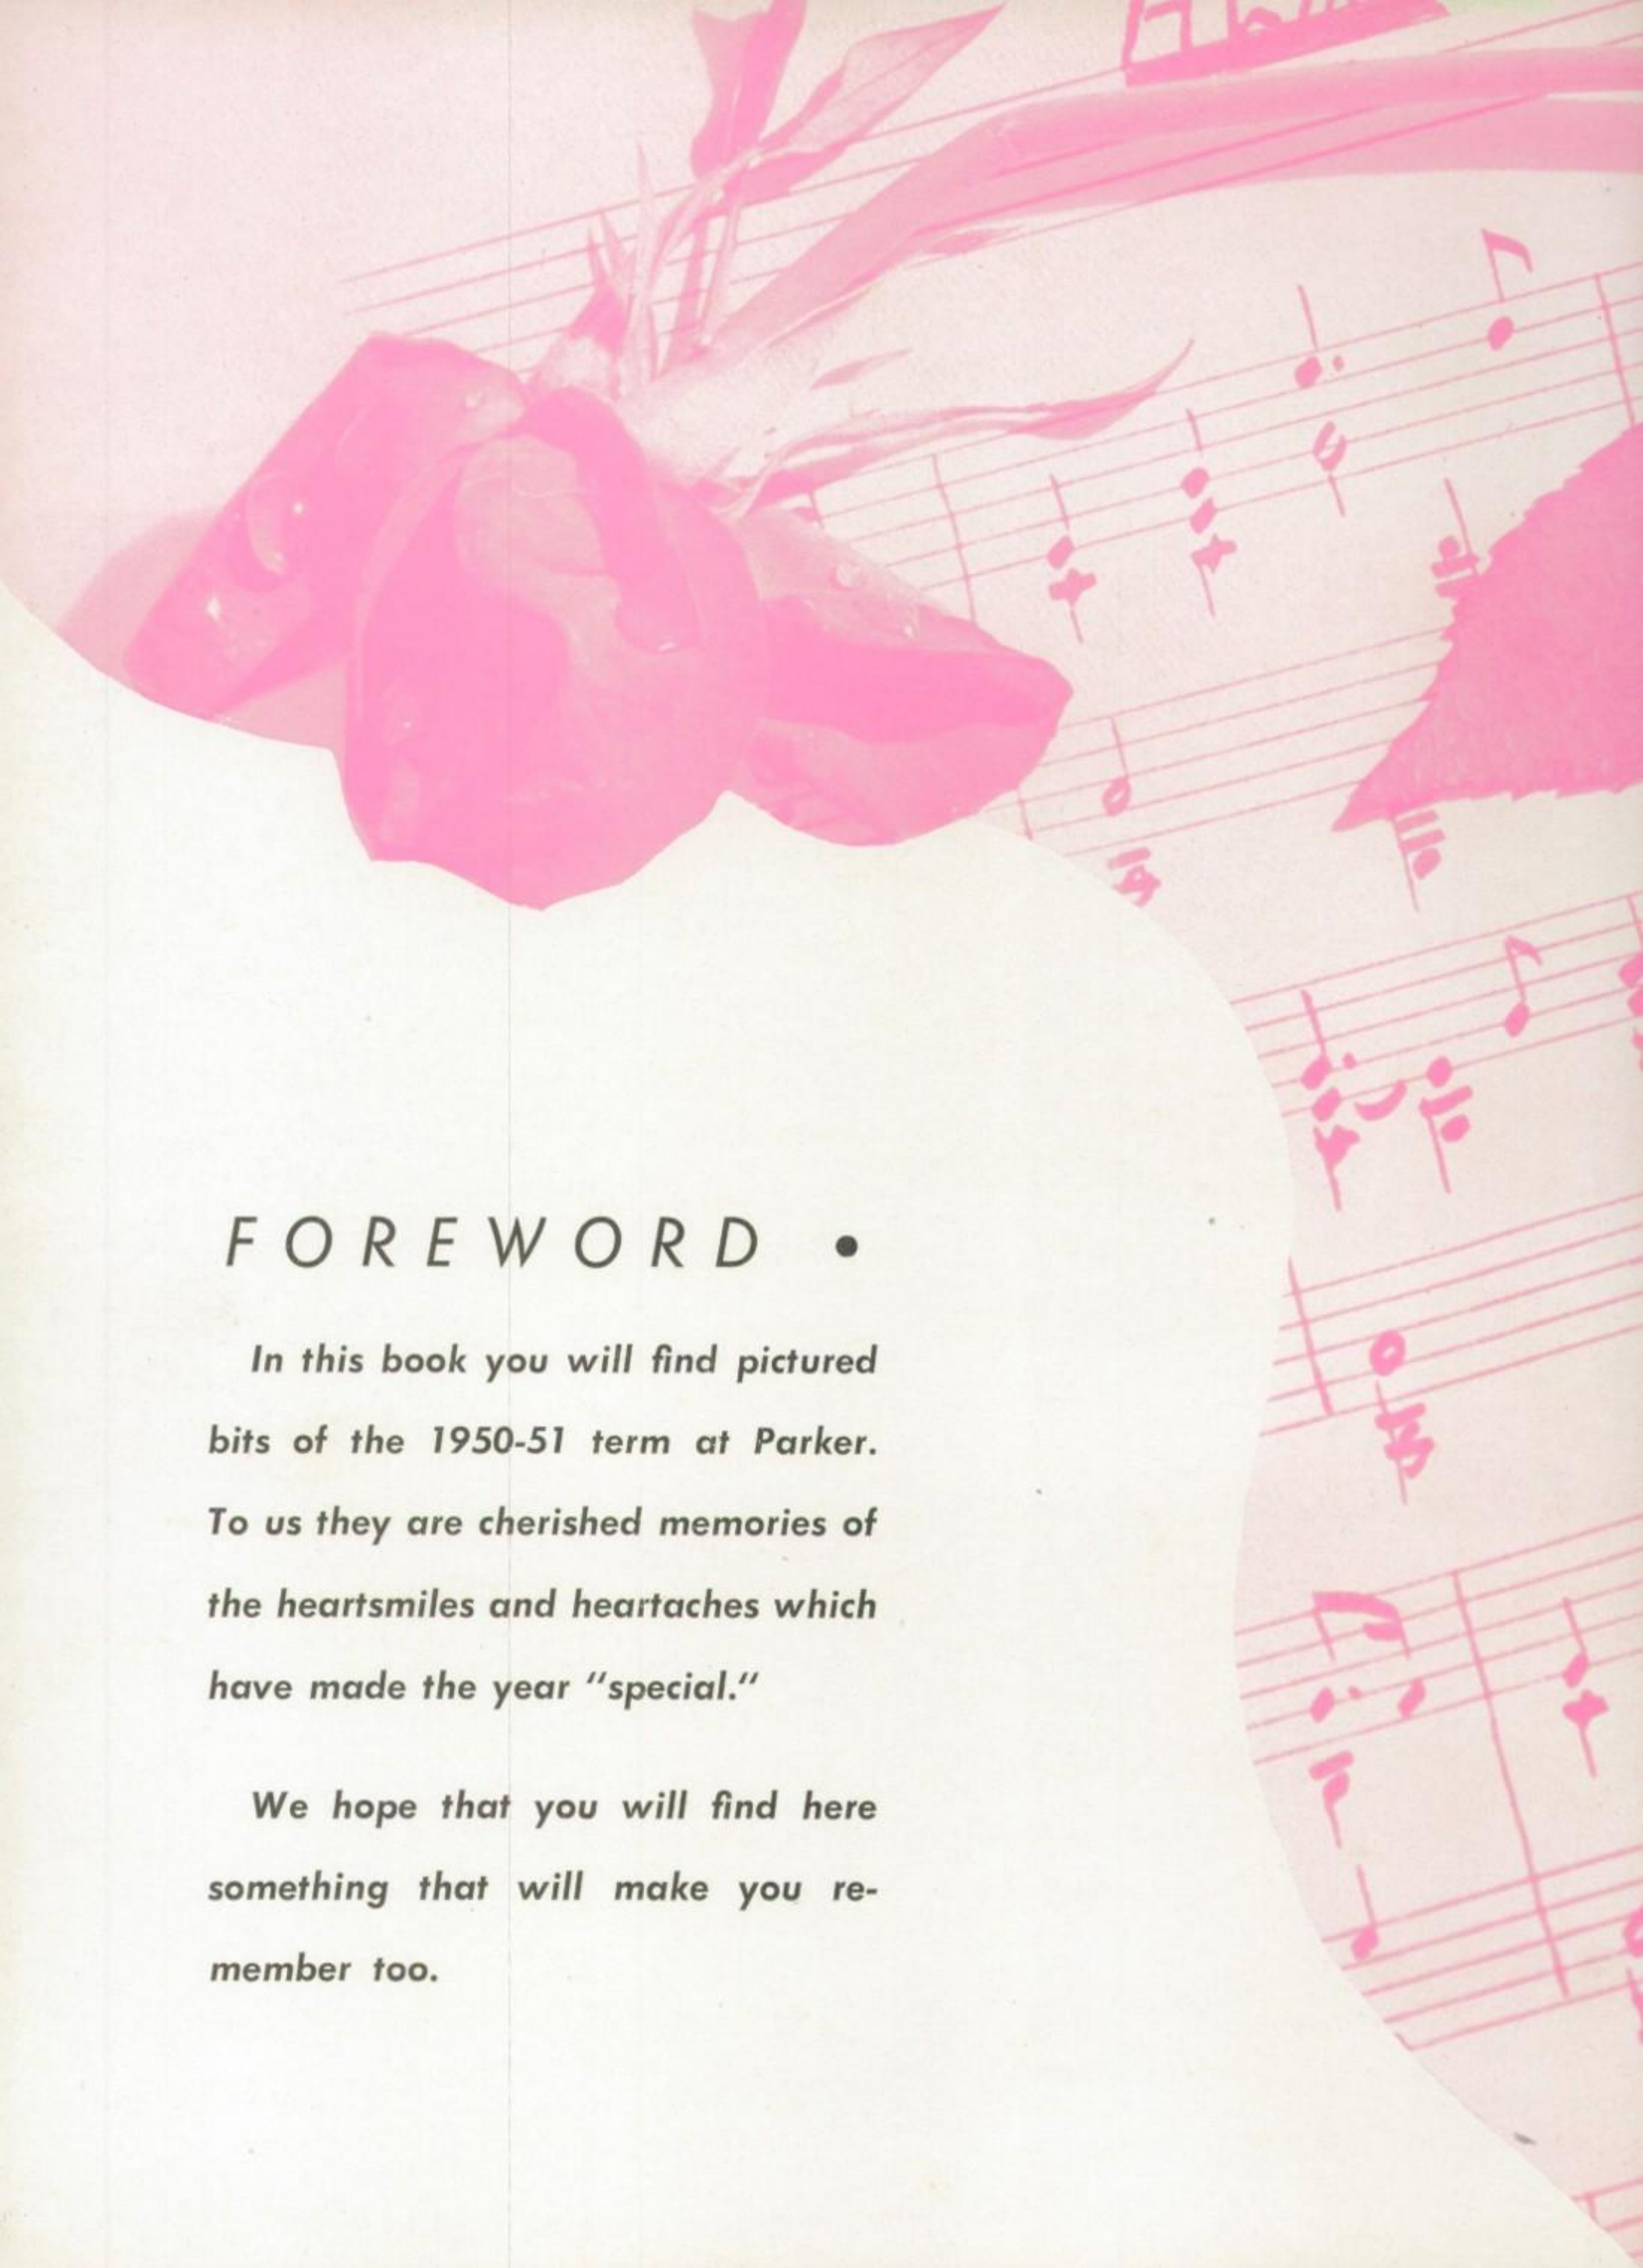
KERSCOPE



FOREWORD •

In this book you will find pictured bits of the 1950-51 term at Parker. To us they are cherished memories of the heartsmiles and heartaches which have made the year "special."

We hope that you will find here something that will make you remember too.

Midst the hum of her industries,
As the beacon's beaming light,
To her children's best endeavors
Parker High School lends her might.
In honor, truth, and wisdom
She her highest ideals holds,
And makes us ever loyal
To the Purple and the Gold.

When duty calls us onward,
Achievement's goal to find,
Parker ties will ne'er be broken.
Still her sheltering arms entwine.
And across the distant spaces
Tales of fame and prowess bold,
Will reflect the Parker Spirit
And the Purple and the Gold.

PARKER'S OWN

Sarah Broadnax

Without the tenderness and care given to our rose by Mrs. Sarah Broadnax, our flower would still be a bud. She planted our rose with years of devoted service, watered it with words of understanding, pruned it with kindness, cultivated it with sound judgment, shielded it with warm consideration, and nourished it with enthusiasm. Now she is gathering the blossoms of appreciation from the student body. We dedicate this 1950-51 annual to our favorite rose, Mrs. "B".

SENIOR PRAYER

OUR HEAVENLY FATHER,

As we approach the great milestone of graduation and prepare to take our places in life, we pause to look back over the many blessings that Thou hast given us and to thank Thee for each of them.

We are grateful to Thee, Father, for the privilege of dwelling in a land of freedom, which has been purchased for us with great sacrifice under Thy holy will and guidance.

Father, help us to appreciate our educational privileges under a free government and to conduct ourselves in our chosen fields as may please Thee.

May each member of our class find a place of usefulness in service, both to Thee and country, to the glory of Thy name.

Help us, O Father, to be fair in our dealings, exemplary in our living, kind in our approach, considerate in our attitudes, prompt in our engagements and pure in our motives—that we may thus do honor to those who have confidence in us and pray for our success.

May the leaders of our land ever be endowed with strength and wisdom, that the Ship of State may be safely guided through the troublous waters to a safe anchorage.

Grant that we shall fill our places well, that we may help establish a land secure in the face of all opposing forces.

Bless us and make us the blessing which Thou knowest we are capable of being, both now and forever more.

This we ask in the Name of Thy Son,

AMEN.

SAMMY GARDNER,
Senior Class Chaplain.

CLASSES

Our rose could never be without its petals — THE CLASSES.

THE Student Court not only teaches honesty and justice, but through jury trials also teaches responsibility for individual action. Offenders are prosecuted and defended by student lawyers. Jurors are impanelled from all classes.

SAMMY GARDNER
Judge

THE house of representatives is composed of one elected member from each eighth, ninth and tenth grade homeroom. With the Senate, they are the lawmakers of Parker.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

ROW ONE: Mr. James Von Hollen, Mary Hill, Wilma Vickery, Freddie McDowell, Margariute Taylor, Shirley Scott, Ruth Thompson, Sammy McCracken, Byron Boylston, Bobby Greenway, David Rigdon, James Mitchel.

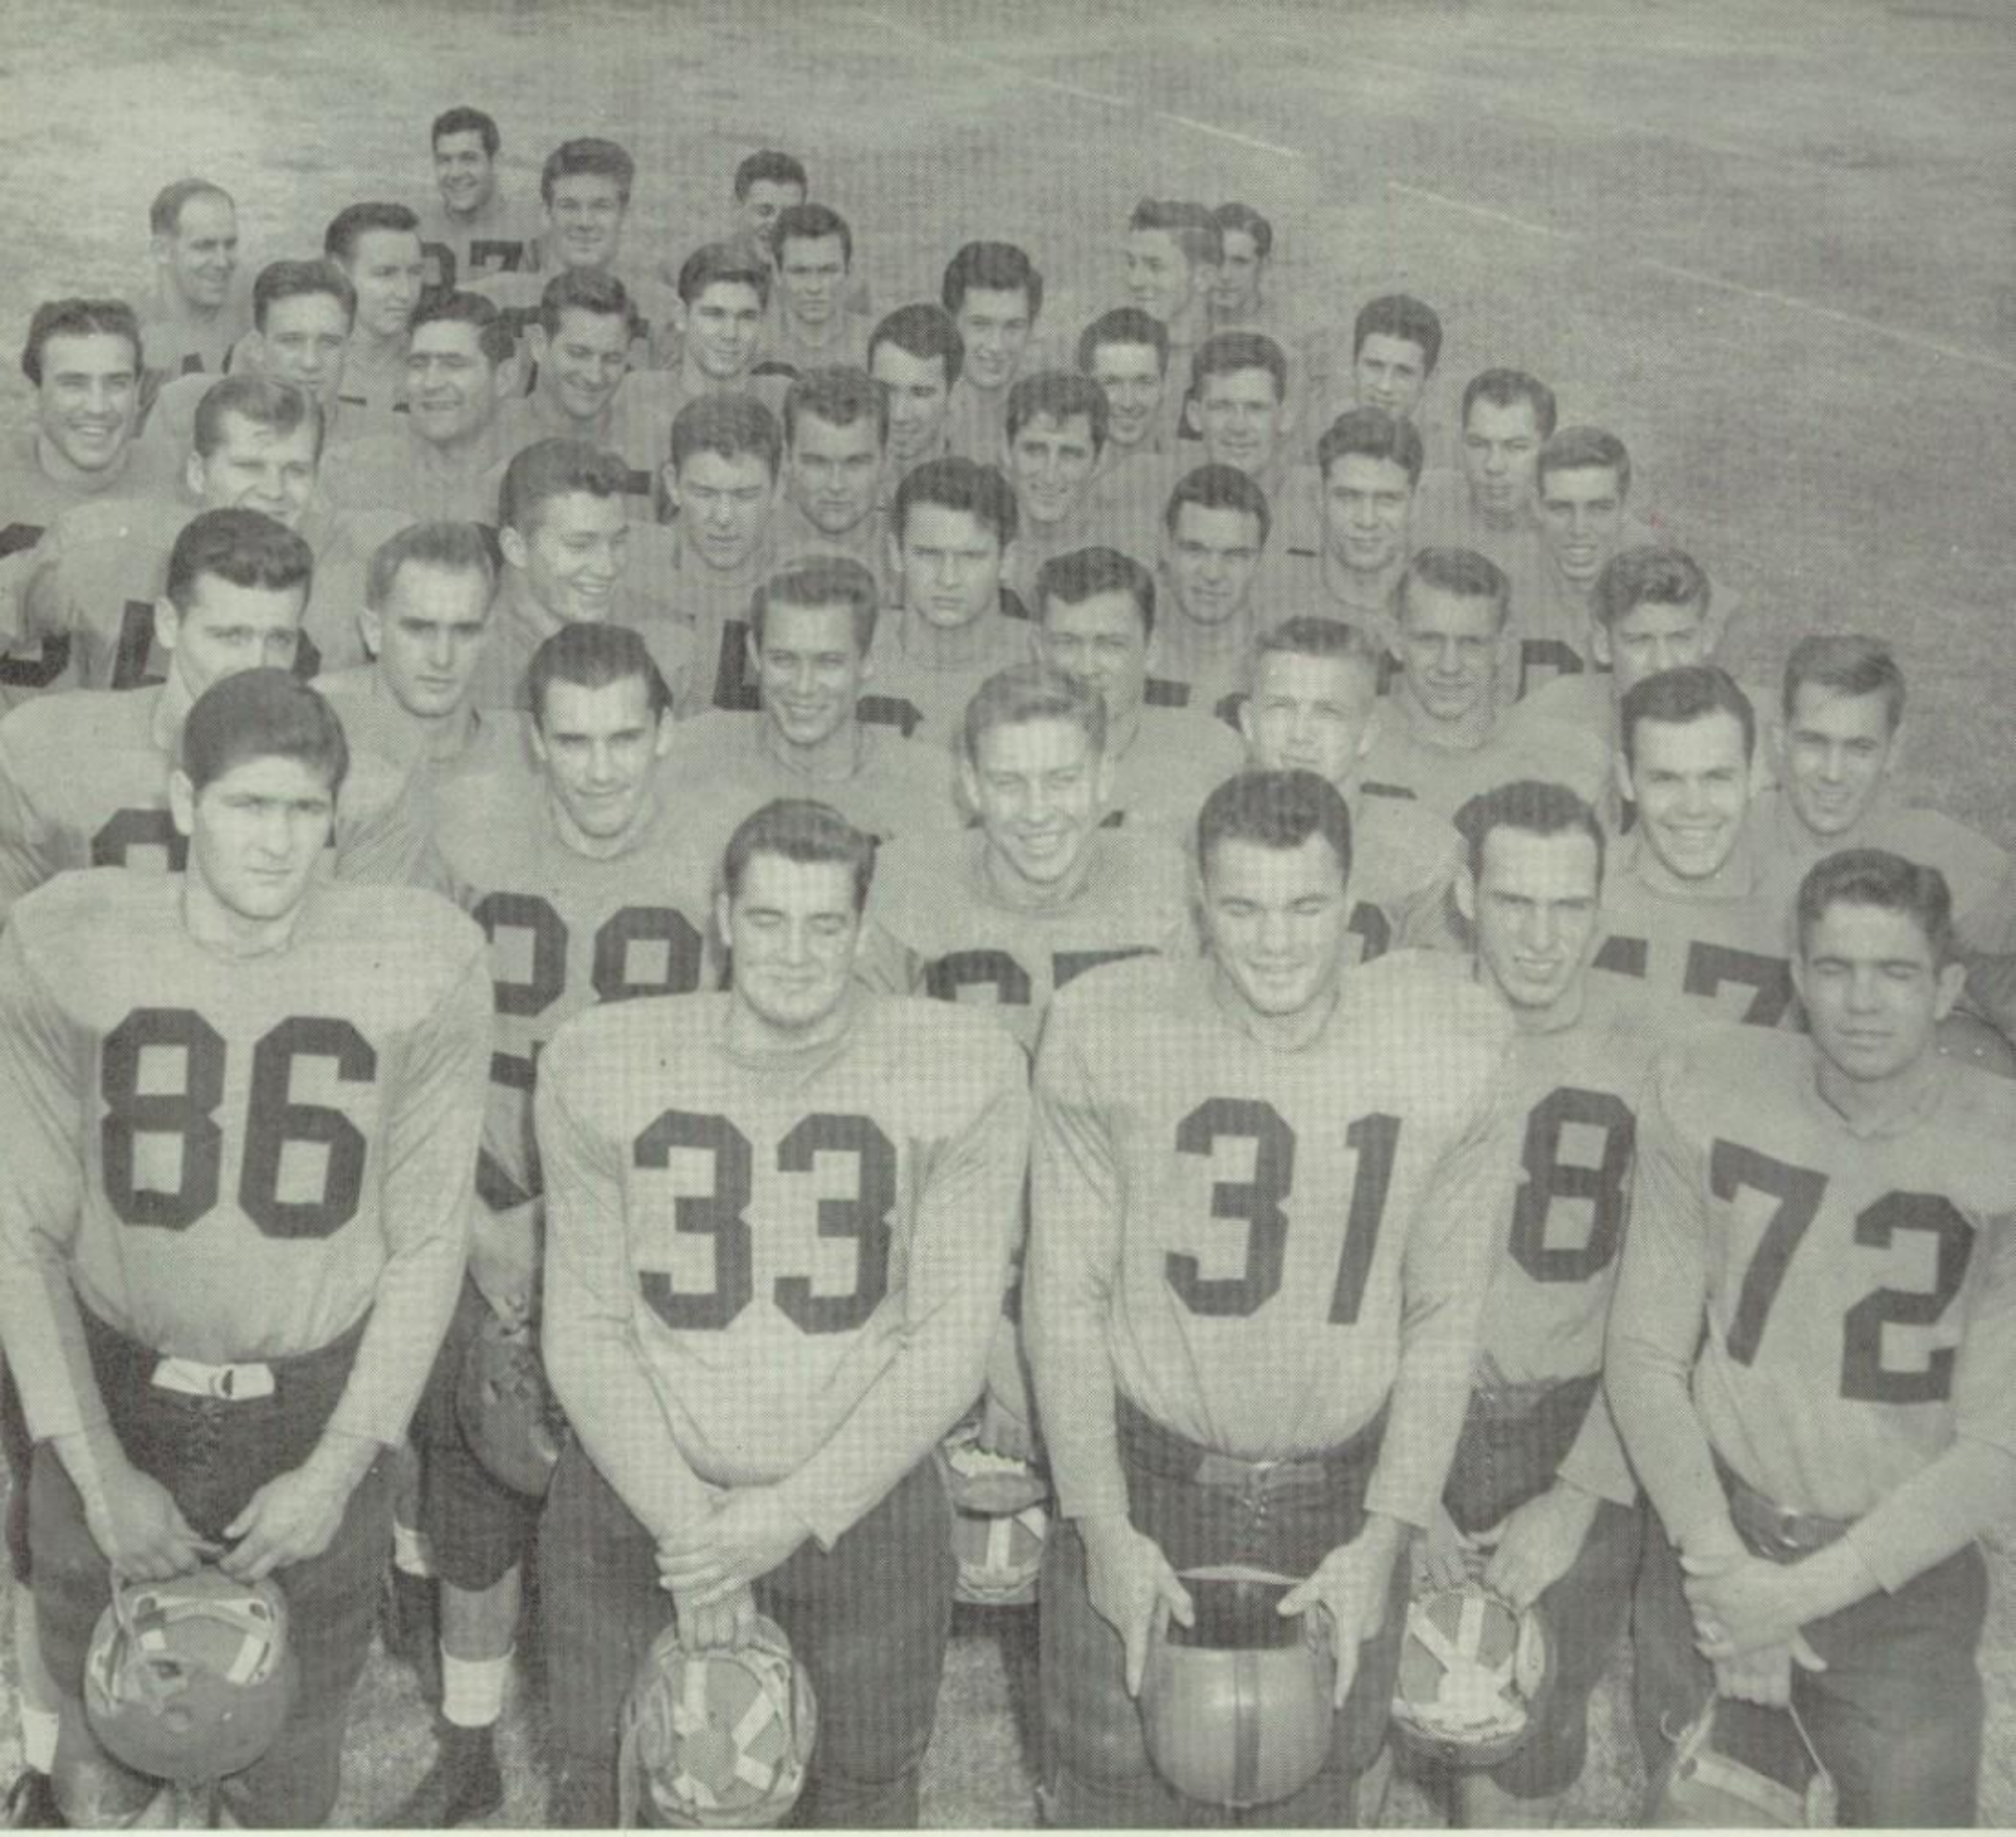
STUDENTS OF THE MONTH



CLEMSON TIGERS

The 1950-51 Clemson Tigers rolled through an undefeated season with one tie by South Carolina — 14-14.

This record gave them a bid to the Orange Bowl in Miami, Florida on New Year's Day. With a sensational last minute safety by Sterling Smith, the Tigers completed their perfect record with a 15 to 14 score over Miami.

Congratulations to the fine and noble "Country Gentlemen" of Clemson!

Parker's Golden Tornado football machine, under the guidance of coaches Whity Kendall and Billy Bryan, proved to be one of the best in the history of the school.

For the record, they finished with 10 wins against a lone loss to state champions Anderson. They roared over Harding, Liberty, Easley, Spartanburg, Gaffney, Murphy, Lancaster, Greenwood and Columbia, with no blemishes on their record.

As the words go, "all good things must come to an end;" and that's exactly what happened to Parker's undefeated record when we met Anderson.

In their final appearance of the season the Kendall charges did what the Tornado rooters dreamed of the entire year . . . beat Greenville High.

In appreciation of the team's successful season, a banquet was held in its honor in the cafeteria. Jerry Hendrix, captain of the squad was voted the most valuable player. Billy Joe Robertson and Bruce Galloway were chosen to lead next year's squad.

Although many of this year's team will never play at Parker again, their fine brand of football and their great dispaly of sportsmanship will never be forgotten.

We salute you, Tornado, and say thank you for keeping the name of Parker high in the world of sports.

Dearest Virginia,

Gosh but it makes me so blue to write to you in your annual for the last time but I hope we will see each other this summer. Virginia, I would never be able to tell you how much I love you but you can bet your bottom dollar that I do. I will never forget you. You have the sweetest friendliest ways I have ever known and I really mean it. Boy! I hope you have the best of luck. Congratulations on winning that certificate. I am really glad you made it. I hope you really do. I will always love you.

Virginia, I will always remember the fun we have had. All our classes were wonderful.
I really love you Virginia you are just a sweet and perfect girl. Virginia I'll always think of you whether in Illinois or where and all the wonderful times we have had. Be good as usual. Love, JoAnn

Well, Jim, we are seniors at last. We had our happy times and our pretty tough, but dear ole P. H. S. has been made pleasant because we have shared them together. I shall always remember the times we laughed through grammar in Mrs. Slater, groaned at hot dogs in Mrs. Woodruff's class, and read American Observers in Miss Miller's class, and will tell my grandchildren about you are my dearest friend Honey, because dreams come true and may all your happiness in the future

Love now and always,
